Politics avant! Civilization's a cinch;
Society is resolved into a game of finch.

NATURE never put the shine on the polished sham.

A WOMANLY woman is the true ideal of a manly man.

STYLES may come and styles may go, but the corset "stays" forever.

THE person who wears a smile need have no fear of it ever going out of fashion.

FOOLISH indeed is the healthy woman who attempts to melt her athletic figure into the unnatural mould of fashion.

ONE touch of womanliness makes the whole world sweet. One spark of manliness makes the commonest beggar look neat.

"The star of Hope shone latest in the west.

The hope Liberty, the last, the best."
Just watch the politics of Panama—Turn loose the G. O. P. and learn the rest.

RIGHT or wrong, my party still!
Nevertheless that coup d'etat of the Republican administration in the Panama affair will prove a mighty good thing for this country.

IT HAS been said that when properly attired the average woman is willing to pass most any kind of examination every hour of the day, and she is also quite capable of passing successfully.

NATURE exhausted her handiwork in making the Brownsville country, and it remains for man to improve to the highest excellence this superlative gift for the human family to find at last Eden regained.

A Mammoth Holiday Issue.

The December Delineator (Christmas Number) represents the high-water mark of beauty and utility, and possibly of circulation also, in a woman's magazine, having a first edition more than a million copies.
It contains 240 pages. To produce this mammoth edition 728 tons of paper and 49 presses working 25 days were required. In addition to exquisite color work, clever fiction and strikingly illustrated articles, the number includes a display of charming winter fashions covering forty-two pages, letters from the foreign fashion centres and illustrated articles on the fashionable fabrics and trimmings, millinery, etc. Among the notable contributors are: Richard Le Gallienne, with a delicate romance; A Wedding Ring in the Garden, containing lyrics in the author's best vein; W. A. Frazer, with an Indian tale, the Net of Leo; Albert Bigelow Paine, with a delightful sketch founded on the foibles of the collector; Harriett Prescott Spofford, with a love story of unusual interest; Andrew Lang, with a clever travesty on the usual fairy tale; and Gustav Kobbé, with an interesting paper describing the life of Mme. Emma Eames in her Italian home, with her portrait in colors. There is also the third installment of the Evolution of a Club Woman, the piquant narrative of clubdom by Agnes Surbridge, and a remarkable photographic article by J. C. Hemment. There are many beautiful art features, among them four pages in color representing Babyhood, Childhood, Girlhood and Motherhood—the work of Bernard J. Rosenmeyer. For the children there are entertaining games and stories, and for the housewife many practical suggestions in cookery and other departments of the home, for the Christmas season.

Held Them Up.

"We have a certain parson," Dean Hart of Denver writes, giving his name, "whom we keep on the frontier. He is a rough diamond, and has a knack with the miners.
Not long ago he went to a camp called Rico, borrowed the dance hall over the saloon for his service, 'rounded up his boys' and the hall was filled. After the sermon came the collection—a very important feature. The preacher ran his eye over his audience, and seeing a certain gambler known as 'Bill the Kid,' Billy,' he said, 'take up the collection.' Very much honored, Billy took his big sombrero hat, and with an important and dignified air, as was fitting for the occasion, he made his way to the front and held his hat for a young man on the foremost chair to 'donate.'

"The young miner dropped in a quarter. Billy looked at it; then putting his hand under his coattails drew his revolver and said, with the utmost gravity, 'Young man, take that back; this here's a dollar show.' Then, with his hat and revolver, moving around the hall, he got as many dollars as there were people."—Our Dumb

A REMARKABLE CURE.

We have a remarkable statement which we would like to make to you. There is a young lady in our community whose menstrual period had stopped and whom the doctors said was blood poisoned. One day her father came into our store and we advised him to try G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea). He said he did not have the money, and we told him that he could take it and if it did her any good he could pay for it. He did so, and one dose gave relief, while one bottle entirely cured her sound and well. She had been having fits and the doctors had given her up to die.
